GOD KNOWS WHICH WAS RIGHT.

Kentucky is first of the States to erect a monument to the memory of her sons who fell on the field of battle, "blue." On the bloody ground of 20 years. Of course not, Chickamauga her sons met in the shock of battle and there died. Upon that historic field the imposing monument has been erected to those who are "united in death."

The inscription is a touching one: ERECTED BY THE STATE OF KEN-TUCKY IN HONOR OF HER SONS WHO FOUGHT AND FELL ON THIS FIELD.

As we are united in life, and they united in death, let one monument perpetuate their deeds, and one people forgetful of all asperilies, forever hold in grateful remembrance all the glories of that terrible conflict which made all men free and retained every star on the nation's flag.

God-defying Ingersoll, commenting on a Southern lynching wants to know "if the government has no power to protect a citizen." A murdered husband of the Southland, could be speak, would ask a like question, and an outraged wife would repeat it.

A death-dealing blizzard has swept over a large portion of the Northwest again, and the wonder is that all those exposed people or many of them don't come to Southside Virginia for protection. May be they don't know what a goodly heritage this is, nor how pleasant our lines. We must tell them about it. "Humanity" bids us do so and that quickly.

It is quite evident that "humanity" and Hanna must have more volunteers, and the question is where are they to come from? Embalmed beef hasn't awakened enthusiasm and fighting beneath the burning rays of a tropical sun to drive even savage people out of their homes and from their low lands to their hill lands is not very inviting When the honor of the nation and not Hanna needs our volunteers, they are ready to respond by the millions. The turned to Washington, is lacking in present call is not an inspiring one.

A gold bug writes from Washington that Bryan is losing ground, He meant to say leaving it behind him. If he is not the most popular man in America today appearances are more than deceiving.
